Reading DTCs?

You can read the error codes on any supported vehicle with the adapter. You do not need a licence for that car. Where possible the error codes are returned along with their description. We do not promote this tool for its diagnostic properties, but it is a handy addition in the event of any errors occurring.